

GORDON M. BOYD

Gordon Boyd is President of EnergyNext, Inc., Saratoga Springs, NY. Since the mid-1990s, when the firm entered the energy business, EnergyNext has helped establish group energy buying programs for more than two dozen groups, using market buying power to leverage better pricing. Clients include both statewide and regional business buying groups, including 20 Chambers of Commerce, several trade associations including hotels, nursing homes, restaurants, and automobile dealers, and the Municipal Electric and Gas Alliance (MEGA), a statewide aggregation group that procures energy supplies through a public bid process for 160+ municipalities, including about 30 county governments.

Boyd is a former chairman of the Environment Committee of the New York Chamber of Commerce, and is active in a number of business groups. He served on the staff of the Speaker of the NYS Assembly for 13 years, developing energy, environmental and infrastructure policy. He resides in Saratoga Springs.
