

ROBERT H. WEDLAKE

Mr. Wedlake is a 1974 graduate of Syracuse University and the State University of New York at Buffalo Law School. Mr. Wedlake was admitted to practice in the State of New York in 1978. Mr. Wedlake is a member of the New York State Bar Association and the Broome County Bar Association and sits on the Broome County Bar Association Oil and Gas Subcommittee. Mr. Wedlake is also former President of the Broome County Bar Association.

Mr. Wedlake is currently a partner with the Law Firm of Hinman, Howard & Kattell, LLP located in Binghamton, New York and his practice includes Oil and Gas Law.

Mr. Wedlake has previously lectured on oil and gas law matters at continuing legal education seminars for attorneys and continuing education for certified public accountants. Mr. Wedlake has also spoken publicly on oil and gas lease matters for the Cornell Cooperative Extension, for the Visions Federal Credit Union and for other organizations.

Mr. Wedlake and his firm, Hinman, Howard & Kattell, LLP currently represent 6 "landowner coalitions" encompassing Broome County, Chenango County and Delaware County. Hinman, Howard & Kattell and Mr. Wedlake also represent many other individual property owners relative to oil and gas leasing matters.

Mr. Wedlake represents the South Maine Millennium Group which is a landowner coalition located in Broome County and is only one of two coalitions that have signed gas leasing deals in the State of New York. Mr. Wedlake is also a member of the Joint Landowners Coalition of New York State.