Prevent.

Help prevent illness by prominently posting hygiene precautions and social distancing guidelines.

Make adjustments, such as canceling or postponing large or unnecessary gatherings, and curtailing travel to reduce the chance of infection.

Contain illness should it occur.

Detailed guidelines available at tinyurl.com/NYS-On-Pause.

Wash your hands often with soap and water for at least 20 seconds. Avoid touching your eyes, nose, and mouth with unwashed hands. Cover your cough or sneeze. Clean and disinfect frequently touched objects and surfaces.

Practice social distancing such as keeping six feet between yourself and others, avoid shaking hands, and avoid crowded areas. Have extra food, medical supplies, and emergency kits, but avoid hoarding. Develop an emergency plan.

If you have recently traveled in an area with coronavirus infections, have been in contact with someone who has tested positive, or are showing symptoms, please separate yourself from others. Monitor your health and talk to a medical professional. Seek medical help if needed.

Stay informed.

Call your doctor: If you think you have been exposed to COVID-19 and develop a fever and symptoms, such as cough or difficulty breathing, call your healthcare provider for medical advice.

IF YOU ARE SICK:

- Stay home except to get medical care
- Separate yourself from others at home
- Avoid sharing personal household items
- Clean “high touch” surfaces daily

Be Resilient.

Prioritize and Organize

- Clarify essential job functions, eliminate any redundancies, and cross-train personnel to perform essential functions if key staff members are absent.
- Revisit your business plan. Consider alternative business models, rebalance your sales and expense projections, adjust operations, while identifying various recovery and contingency options. Create a business continuity plan if you don't already have one and an infectious disease outbreak plan.
- Gather corporate documents, both in hardcopy and electronic formats. These might include corporate formation documents, lease and legal agreements, licenses and permits, insurance policies, financial statements, and tax records, among others.
- Review insurance policies, particularly business interruption insurance, and file claims as appropriate.

Make Necessary Adjustments

- Closely track inventory to avoid any interruption in your supply chain.
- Consider using teleconferencing, videoconferencing, live streaming, e-commerce solutions, and convenience options such as pick up, delivery and curbside service.
- Cancel and postpone events and meetings, as necessary, and adjust travel and transportation plans as needed. Offer information about safety practices of public transportation such as BCTransit with those who may be concerned.

Maintain Communication with Key Stakeholders

- Be the first to open the lines of communication and continue to convey your plans and request assistance, as appropriate.
- Ensure that employees are well informed about health and job considerations.
- Let customers know about any changes in services or schedules and let them know how they can continue to patronize your business.
- Review expectations with suppliers and contractors and diversify your base of vendors, as needed.
- Dialogue with your landlord, lender(s), and investors to discuss mutually-beneficial options.
- Reach out to professional advisors such as your attorney, accountant, bookkeeper, and insurance professionals for advice and assistance.

Beware of Scams.

- The Small Business Administration would like businesses to be aware of reports of scammers on the rise with respect to their PPP and EIDL programs. Below is some information regarding the scams that have been reported thus far.
 - Emails impersonating SBA to a borrower regarding PPP loan applications. SBA DOES NOT communicate with borrowers regarding specific PPP loan applications. All PPP loan correspondence should be between the lender and the borrower.
 - Emails impersonating SBA asking for borrowers to complete and sign attached documents to “complete” their disaster “Grant Application.” SBA does not process grants. All EIDL loan processing now occurs through the EIDL portal, and legitimate loan approval emails clearly reference the original confirmation #. If additional documentation is required (95% of loans do not require more documentation), it is electronically handled in the portal. EIDL Advances process with NO action required on the part of the applicant.
 - These phishing emails are sophisticated, with SBA logos and styling consistent with legitimate SBA communications. If in doubt, the borrower may contact the SBA office.
- More information can be found online on the SBA website at <https://www.sba.gov/document/report--sba-programs-scams-fraud-alerts>
- Report any suspected fraud to Office Inspector General’s Hotline at 800-767-0385 or online at, <https://www.sba.gov/about-sba/oversight-advocacy/office-inspector-general/office-inspector-general-hotline>

*An infographic summarizing SBA Scam and Fraud schemes can be located in the Appendix of this toolkit.

Beware of Scams.

- The Office of New York State Attorney General Letitia James has put out 5 Steps You Can Take to Protect Yourself and Your Business from Fraud When Applying for a PPP Loan:

1. Deal only with trusted lenders – and don't be a victim to phony PPP lenders

- Don't take out a PPP loan from a lender you do not trust or recognize without conducting appropriate due diligence. To find a lender eligible to issue PPP loans, visit the SBA's website at <https://www.sba.gov/funding-programs/loans/coronavirus-relief-options/paycheck-protection-program-ppp>. Click the "FIND A LENDER" link to find an eligible lender located near you.
- PPP rules allow the loans to be arranged by agents, including attorneys, accountants, and consultants. However, an agent is not required, and you should be wary of promises from parties who are not authorized lenders to expedite a loan on your behalf. To minimize the risk of fraud, you should contact an eligible, trusted lender yourself and not rely on agents or lenders that cold-call your business.
- If you do decide to work with an agent, make sure the agent is a person or company you recognize and trust. Confirm in writing that the agent is working with specific lenders eligible to participate in the PPP program, and confirm in writing the agent's full name, phone number, and mailing address. Do not pay the agent any fees (see below).
- Some lenders may advertise PPP loans even though they have no authority from the U.S. government to do so. They may also advertise loans "administered" by the SBA, even though true PPP loans are administered only by lenders, not the SBA itself.
- If an unauthorized lender promises a PPP loan or a loan "administered" by the SBA, that promise may be a sham, and the lender may be trying to sell you a different type of loan or funding – possibly with higher interest than permitted for PPP loans and with improper fees. Always confirm that a lender is eligible to issue PPP loans and that you are being offered a product consistent with terms of the PPP program described above.

2. Make sure the information in your loan application is 100% correct, and don't let anyone add information that isn't accurate

- Unscrupulous agents or lenders may encourage borrowers to put false information in their loan applications in order to get the biggest loan possible (and to maximize their fees).
- Don't be a victim to this fraudulent practice. A fraudulent loan application can result in criminal liability for the borrower. To avoid this risk, make sure that everything in your application is correct, and don't let any agent or lender put inaccurate information in it.

3. Don't pay fees to get a PPP loan

- Lenders and agents may not charge borrowers fees or commissions in order to issue and service PPP loans.
- Lenders will be paid fees only by the SBA, not by borrowers. The SBA will pay lenders processing fees of 5% (for loans up to $350,000), 3% (for loans more than $350,000 but less than $2 million), or 1% (for loans of $2 million or more).
- If you are working with an agent, the agent's fees are to be paid only by the lender, and the agent is not allowed to charge you anything or take any amounts from the principal of your loan.

Beware of Scams.

- The Office of New York State Attorney General Letitia James has put out 5 Steps You Can Take to Protect Yourself and Your Business from Fraud When Applying for a PPP Loan:
 4. Don't pay above 1% annual interest for a PPP loan
 - PPP loans are low-interest loans, with annual interest rates of just 1% per year. Do not agree to any PPP loan that carries an interest rate higher than 1%.
 5. Watch the Small Business Administration's website for new developments
 - This Consumer Alert from the OAG reflects guidance from the U.S. government as it exists on April 14, 2020. But the PPP is a brand-new program, and its rules could change from day to day. Be sure to regularly check the Small Business Administration's website at <https://www.sba.gov/funding-programs/loans/coronavirus-relief-options/paycheck-protection-program-ppp> for new developments concerning PPP loans.
- If you believe you have been defrauded by someone offering, issuing, or servicing a PPP loan, or if you have been offered a PPP loan by a lender that does not appear on the SBA.gov website as an eligible lender:
 - You may file a complaint with the OAG's Office of Consumer Frauds and Protection, either online at <https://ag.ny.gov/consumer-frauds/Filing-a-Consumer-Complaint> or by phone at (800) 771-7755.
 - You may also submit a complaint to the U.S. Federal Trade Commission at <https://www.ftccomplaintassistant.gov>.
 - Be sure to save all documents and communications concerning the loan, including agreements, emails, and advertising.

PART A - EMPLOYEE INFORMATION (to be completed by the employee)

The employee requesting PFL must complete all required information.

Paid Family Leave (PFL) Request (to be completed by the employee)

Question 12: A child is defined as a biological, adopted, or foster son or daughter, a stepson or stepdaughter, a legal ward, a son or daughter of a domestic partner, or the person to whom the employee stands in loco parentis. A parent is defined as a biological, foster, or adoptive parent, parent-in-law, a stepparent, a legal guardian, or other person who stood in loco parentis to the employee when the employee was a child.

Questions 13: If dates are "Continuous", the employee must provide the start and end dates of the requested PFL. These dates should be the actual dates that the PFL will begin and end. If uncertain, estimate the start and end dates and indicate "Dates are estimated". If dates are "Periodic", enter the dates PFL will be taken. Please be as specific as possible. If the dates are unknown or estimated, indicate "Dates are estimated".

If dates are estimated, the PFL carrier may require you to submit a request for payment after the PFL day is taken. Payment for approved claims will be due as soon as possible but in no event more than 18 days from the date of the completed request.

Question 14: If the employee is submitting the PFL request to their employer with less than 30 days' advance notice from the start date of the PFL, the employee must explain why 30 days' notice could not be given. If the explanation will not fit in the space provided on the form, enter "See Attached" and add an attachment with the explanation. Be sure to include the employee's full name and their date of birth at the top of the attachment.

Employment Information (to be completed by the employee)

Question 16: Enter the date of hire to the best of the employee's recollection. If it has been more than a year since the date of hire, entering the year in which employment started is sufficient.

Question 18: Enter the best estimate of average gross weekly wage. Include only the wages earned from the employer listed on this request form. The gross weekly wage is the total weekly pay - including overtime, tips, bonuses and commissions - before any deductions are made by the employer, such as federal and state taxes. If the employer is not able to supply this information, the employee can calculate their gross weekly wage as follows:

Step 1: Add all gross wages received (before any deductions) over the last eight weeks prior to the start of PFL, including overtime and tips earned. (See Step 3 for instructions for calculating bonuses and/or commissions.)

Step 2: Divide the gross wages calculated in step one by eight (or the number of weeks worked if less than eight) to calculate the average weekly wage.

Step 3: If the employee received bonuses and/or commissions during the 52 weeks preceding PFL, add the prorated weekly amount to the average weekly wage. To determine the prorated weekly amount, add all bonuses/commissions earned in the preceding 52 weeks and then divide by 52.

Example of a gross weekly wage calculation:

Week 1 - Gross wage including overtime	$550
Week 2 - Gross wage	$500
Week 3 - Gross wage	$500
Week 4 - Gross wage	$500
Week 5 - Gross wage	$500
Week 6 - Gross wage	$500
Week 7 - Gross wage, including overtime	$600
Week 8 - Gross wage, including overtime	+ $550
Total =	$4,200
Divide by 8	+ 8
Average Weekly Wage =	$525
Bonus earned in preceding 52 weeks	$2,600
Divide by 52	+ 52
Prorated Weekly Bonus =	$50

If pre-submitting is permitted by the carrier or self-insured employer, the missing information must be supplied as soon as it is known. Benefits cannot be determined until all of the required information is provided.

The PFL insurance carrier or self-insured employer will provide the employee a notice within five days which 1) states the claim is pending; 2) identifies what information is missing; 3) instructs how to submit the missing information. Once all information is supplied, the PFL insurance carrier or self-insured employer has 18 days to pay or deny the claim.

If the carrier or self-insured employer does not permit pre-submitting, the carrier or self-insured employer must return the Request for Paid Family Leave within five days to the employee with an explanation that the claim should be re-submitted when all information is available.

Employee signs and dates, before giving this form to their employer to complete Part B.

Purpose of this form:

This form is to be completed by the authorized representative of the Applicant and submitted to your SBA Participating Lender. Submission of the requested information is required to make a determination regarding eligibility for financial assistance. Failure to submit the information would affect that determination.

Instructions for completing this form:

With respect to “purpose of the loan,” payroll costs consist of compensation to employees (whose principal place of residence is the United States) in the form of salary, wages, commissions, or similar compensation; cash tips or the equivalent (based on employer records of past tips or, in the absence of such records, a reasonable, good-faith employer estimate of such tips); payment for vacation, parental, family, medical, or sick leave; allowance for separation or dismissal; payment for the provision of employee benefits consisting of group health care coverage, including insurance premiums, and retirement; payment of state and local taxes assessed on compensation of employees; and for an independent contractor or sole proprietor, wage, commissions, income, or net earnings from self-employment or similar compensation.

For purposes of calculating “Average Monthly Payroll,” most Applicants will use the average monthly payroll for 2019, excluding costs over $100,000 on an annualized basis for each employee. For seasonal businesses, the Applicant may elect to instead use average monthly payroll for the time period between February 15, 2019 and June 30, 2019, excluding costs over $100,000 on an annualized basis for each employee. For new businesses, average monthly payroll may be calculated using the time period from January 1, 2020 to February 29, 2020, excluding costs over $100,000 on an annualized basis for each employee.

If Applicant is refinancing an Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL): Add the outstanding amount of an EIDL made between January 31, 2020 and April 3, 2020, less the amount of any “advance” under an EIDL COVID-19 loan, to Loan Request as indicated on the form.

Disclosure of Information – Requests for information about another party may be denied unless SBA has the written permission of the individual to release the information to the requestor or unless the information is subject to disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act. The Privacy Act authorizes SBA to make certain “routine uses” of information protected by that Act. One such routine use is the disclosure of information maintained in SBA’s system of records when this information indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal, or administrative in nature. Specifically, SBA may refer the information to the appropriate agency, whether Federal, State, local or foreign, charged with responsibility for, or otherwise involved in investigation, prosecution, enforcement or prevention of such violations. Another routine use is disclosure to other Federal agencies conducting background checks but only to the extent the information is relevant to the requesting agencies’ function. See, 74 F.R. 14890 (2009), and as amended from time to time for additional background and other routine uses. BROOME COUNTY ARTS COUNCIL

Resource Alert

In the coming months, The Broome County Arts Council will provide our Artist Members and Cultural Partners with as many resources as possible to help you mitigate financial loss during the special circumstances that COVID-19 presents in our community.

All of the Emergency Preparedness and Assistance Resources that our Arts Partner, The ARTS Council of the Southern Finger Lakes, have compiled can be found here: <https://www.earts.org/southern-finger-lakes-arts-preparedness-network>.

New opportunities have been developed in direct response to COVID-19. These new resources explore ethical cancellation guidelines, grants for freelance artists, fiscal resources, continuation strategies and more.

2020 Rauschenberg Medical Emergency Grants – The New York Foundation for the Arts has partnered with the Robert Rauschenberg Foundation to administer a medical emergency grant program called Rauschenberg Emergency Grants. This program will assist professional artists of all disciplines in need. The program will provide visual and media artists and choreographers with one-time grants of up to $5,000 for medical emergencies beginning in early June 2020. <https://www.rauschenbergfoundation.org/programs/grants/rauschenberg-emergency-grants>

COVID-19 Freelance Artist Resources – This list is specifically designed to serve freelance artists, and those interested in supporting the independent artist community. This includes, but is not limited to, actors, designers, producers, technicians, stage managers, musicians, composers, choreographers, visual artists, filmmakers, craft artists, teaching artists, dancers, writers & playwrights, photographers, etc. <http://covid19freelanceartistresource.wordpress.com>

Principles for Ethical Cancellation – compiled by Springboard for the Arts, these suggestions assist businesses and organizations to help mitigate the impact on artists and freelancers. <https://springboardforthearts.org/stories-writing/principles-for-ethical-cancellation/>

Sweet Relief Musician's Fund – Sweet Relief Musician's Fund provides financial assistance to all types of career musicians and music industry workers who are struggling to make ends meet while facing illness, disability, or age-related problems. In other words, Healing Musicians in Need. We all have received so much out of music, it's time to give a little back! A special COVID-19 fund has been established. <https://www.sweetrelief.org/>

BEWARE OF SCAMS AND FRAUD SCHEMES

The Office of Inspector General recognizes that we are facing unprecedented times and is alerting the public about potential fraud schemes related to economic stimulus programs offered by the U.S. Small Business Administration in response to the Novel Coronavirus Pandemic (COVID-19). The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (CARES Act), the largest financial assistance bill to date, includes provisions to help small businesses. Fraudsters have already begun targeting small business owners during these economically difficult times. Be on the lookout for grant fraud, loan fraud, and phishing.

Grants

- SBA does not initiate contact on either 7a or Disaster loans or grants. If you are proactively contacted by someone claiming to be from the SBA, suspect fraud.

Loans

- If you are contacted by someone promising to get approval of an SBA loan, but requires any payment up front or offers a high interest bridge loan in the interim, suspect fraud.
- SBA limits the fees a broker can charge a borrower to 3% for loans $50,000 or less and 2% for loans $50,000 to $1,000,000 with an additional ¼% on amounts over $1,000,000. Any attempt to charge more than these fees is inappropriate.
- If you have a question about getting a SBA disaster loan, call 800-659-2955 or send an email to disastercustomerservice@sba.gov.
- If you have questions about other SBA lending products, call SBA's Answer Desk at 800-827-5722 or send an email to answerdesk@sba.gov.

Phishing

- Look out for phishing attacks/scams utilizing the SBA logo. These may be attempts to obtain your personally identifiable information (PII), to obtain personal banking access, or to install ransomware/malware on your computer.
- If you are in the process of applying for an SBA loan and receive email correspondence asking for PII, ensure that the referenced application number is consistent with the actual application number.
- Any email communication from SBA will come from accounts ending with sba.gov.
- The presence of an SBA logo on a webpage does not guaranty the information is accurate or endorsed by SBA. Please cross-reference any information you receive with information available at www.sba.gov.

Report any suspected fraud to OIG's Hotline at 800-767-0385 or online at, <https://www.sba.gov/about-sba/oversight-advocacy/office-inspector-general/office-inspector-general-hotline>.
